

I encourage Senators to come to the floor today, tomorrow, Monday, and all next week as we hope to complete our work. My expectation is that we would complete our work on this resolution, on this set of issues relating to this resolution, sometime by midweek next week.

I know we are scheduled to have a vote at 4:15. That time has arrived.

I yield the floor.

MAKING FURTHER CONTINUING APPROPRIATIONS FOR THE FISCAL YEAR 2003

Mr. REID. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the Senate proceed to the immediate consideration of H.J. Res. 112, a 1-week continuing resolution, just received from the House, which is now at the desk.

A joint resolution (H.J. Res. 112) making further continuing appropriations for the fiscal year 2003, and for other purposes.

There being no objection, the Senate proceeded to consider the joint resolution.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

UNANIMOUS CONSENT REQUEST—S. 2766

Mr. HARKIN. Mr. President, as I will every day, I ask unanimous consent that the majority leader, after consultation with the Republican leader, turn to the consideration of S. 2766, the Labor, Health, Human Services, and Education appropriations bill.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection?

Mr. NICKLES. Reserving the right to object.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Oklahoma is recognized.

Mr. NICKLES. I did not quite catch the request. To clarify, this would set aside the homeland security bill? This would set aside the Iraqi resolution?

Mr. HARKIN. Yes. The appropriations bill for Labor, Health and Human Services, and Education passed the subcommittee unanimously, and passed the committee unanimously. We are now in a new fiscal year. Our schools out there need this help. Every day that we don't pass it means they are getting less money for special education, less money for teacher training, less money for title I to help, as a result of the bill we passed just a year ago, to leave no child behind. So I have asked unanimous consent that the leader turn to the consideration of S. 2766, the Labor, Health and Human Services, and Education appropriations bill.

Mr. NICKLES. Mr. President, I object.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Objection is heard.

Mr. HARKIN. Mr. President, I, again, say I am sorry that we hear an objection from the other side. We are not doing much around here. Every day we sort of hang around and have a couple of cloture votes and that is about it. We could bring up this education bill.

As I said, it passed unanimously. That means both Republicans and Democrats supported this bill. It has money in it for Pell grants. We have a lot of middle-class kids going to college who are counting on these Pell grants. This bill had a $100 increase to help these middle-class kids go to college. Yet we are being denied the opportunity to get that $100 increase per year for the Pell grant.

We just passed a leave-no-child-behind bill last year. I ask Senators to go and talk to the principals in the schools. Where are the resources to back them up? Without the resources, a lot of children are going to be left behind.

So this bill has resources in it for title I—as I said, about $700 million. That is going to be denied to our public schools because the other side objected.

Special education—almost $1 billion is tied up because the other side objects to going to our appropriations bill.
